Location...

The popular and historic coastal tourist resort of Skegness receives over 1.2 million visitors in the summer and has a permanent population of around 20,000 residents.

The town is situated at the end of the mainline railway from Grantham with the M180 approximately 25 miles to the north, road access to Peterborough via the A52 trunk road which also leads to the Midlands.

Lincoln is approximately 35 miles to the north-west and Boston 20 miles to the south-west.

The town enjoys a strong retail offering and good leisure facilities including a number of well-regarded schools and an uninterrupted beach 50 miles long taking in other various coastal resorts such as Ingoldmells and Mablethorpe.

Beacon Way is on the outskirts of the town approximately 2 miles from the coast on the north side. To the rear is housing, a golf course and holiday accommodation and to the south residential accommodation.
